Seen or experienced a structural or fire safety issue?

Help create a safer built environment – submit a report to CROSS

Collaborative Reporting for Safer Structures (CROSS) is a confidential reporting system for those working in design, construction or building management. If you have seen an incident or near miss relating to fire or structural safety, you should submit a report. Help to build a safer society.